ONE- (OR MORE-) LINERS TAKEN FROM “ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL”

By John F. MacArthur

Paul employs the expression “sound teaching” in 1 Timothy 1 ... verses 9 and 10 ... A society filled with and influenced by liars, perjurers, murderers, and homosexuals is by no means tolerant of sound teaching. ... Note that Paul does not suggest that the way to teach such a society is to soften the message so that such people will be comfortable with it. (p35)

Scripture says the early Christians “turned the world upside down” (Acts 17:6). In our generation, the world is turning the Church upside down. Biblically, God is sovereign, not ‘unchurched Harry.’ ... I never hear the term “user-friendly church” without thinking of Acts 5 and Ananias and Sapphira. ... The Jerusalem church certainly wasn’t very user-friendly. ... The church was definitely not a place for sinners to be comfortable – it was a frightening place. (p51)

There is no danger of irrelevant doctrine. The real threat is an undocctrinal attempt at relevance. ... how can anything God says be irrelevant (2 Tim. 3:16,17)? (p82)

The notion that the Church must become like the world to win the world has taken evangelism by storm. ... We have Christian motorcycle gangs, Christian bodybuilding teams, Christian dance clubs, Christian amusement parks, and I even read about a Christian nudist camp. ... Where did Christians ever get the idea we could win the world by imitating it? (p90)

No doctrine is more despised by the natural mind than the truth that God is absolutely sovereign. Human pride loathes the suggestion that God orders everything, controls everything, rules over everything. ... Most of all, the flesh hates the notion that salvation is entirely God’s work. ... But that is, after all, precisely what Scripture teaches. (p154)
